

A Sure and Secure Salvation

Is your salvation sure and secure? Why would I ask such a question?

YO' El declares in verse 32 of chapter 2 the following: "And it shall be that everyone who calls on the Name of YHWH shall be delivered. For on Mount Tziyon and in Yerushalayim there shall be an escape as YHWH has said, and among the escaped remnant whom YHWH calls."

YESHAYAHU 4:2-3; In that day the Branch of YHWH shall be splendid and esteemed. And the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for the escaped remnant of Yisr' el. And it shall be that he who is left in Tziyon and he who remains in Yerushalayim is called set-apart, everyone who is written among the living in Yerushalayim.

OBADYAH 17; "But on Mount Tziyon there shall be an escape and they shall be set-apart."

REVELATION 14:1; And I looked and saw a Lamb standing on Mount Tziyon, and with him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His Father's Name written upon their foreheads.

ROMANS 10:8-9; But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" – That is the word of belief, which we are proclaiming: That if you confess with your mouth the Master (Maran) YAHSUA and believe in your heart that YHWH, the 'Elohim, has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved.

1 PETER 1:3 & 7; Blessed be the 'Elohim and Father of our Master/Maran YAHSUA Messiah, Who according to His great compassion has caused us to be born again to a living expectation through the resurrection of YAHSUA Messiah from the dead, in order that the proving of your belief – much more precious than gold that perishes, and proven by fire – might be found to result in praise and respect and esteem at the revelation of YAHSUA Messiah.

ROMANS 10:12-13; Because there is no distinction between Yahudi and the Greek or the Aramean, for the same Master YHWH (MarYAH)* of all is rich in mercy to all calling upon Him. For "everyone who calls upon the Name YHWH shall be saved."

ACTS 2:21; "And it shall come to be that everyone who calls upon the Name of Master YHWH (MarYAH)* shall be saved."

*Master YHWH = MarYAH in the 'Aramaic Peshitta Text' of the renewed/refreshed covenant, which literally means that to call upon YHWH thru YAHSUA the Messiah/Mashiach is salvation itself.

ROMANS 10:4; For Messiah/Mashiach is the goal of the 'Torah unto righteous standing' to everyone who believes.

ROMANS 10:14-15; How then shall they call upon Him, by Name, in Whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of Whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without someone proclaiming the 'Good News of peace' and bringing the 'Good News of things'? And how shall they proclaim these things if they are not sent?

Do you think these are good questions? Certainly they are. When the ‘ Good News of peace,’ and the ‘Good News of things’ and works are proclaimed in the true Names, most people will say, “We have never heard of those Names,” and they disbelieve not even caring for the true Names because other works have been declared in other names or titles.

According to Paul, someone must be preaching this or the people will never hear, believe and be saved.

Make your past calling and election sure and secure, by calling upon YHWH, and not on any other substituted and abominable titles. Restoration Scriptures –Third Edition – YATI, Margate FL 33063 – Endnote # 5800, page 958.

Seal the deal! For YHWH made a covenant with the escaped remnant of all Yisr’el.

Why We Call Upon YHWH!

Bereshith-Genesis 4:26;Then it was begun to call upon the Name YHWH.

We must realize that the Hebrew Scripture is a book or record about YHWH – The Sovereign One, The Supernal One, and The Mighty One. YHWH is The Supernal Creator, YHWH is The Breath of Life, The Mightiest of The mighty ones, and The Savior of mankind and The Sovereign of the heavens and the earth.

We Choose To Call Upon The Name YHW H.

We do not agree with the pagan personal title of a deity called G-d, which is strictly forbidden by YHWH in Yeshayahu-Isaiah 65:11, being used for and in place of YHWH.

Yeshayahu-Isaiah 65:11; “But you are those who forsake YHWH, who forget My set-apart mountain, who prepare a table for Gad, and who fill a drink offering for Meni.”

Gad – Brown Driver & Briggs page 151 – Strong’ s Concordance number 1408 – defined as the god of fortune.

Meni – Brown Driver & Briggs page 584 – Strong’ s Concordance number 4507 – defined as the god of fate.

The Name YHWH, in the Hebrew, is to be transliterated from the Hebrew into the various languages. This means that in the course of transliteration, the transliterator must make every reasonable effort to carry-over the sound of the Set-apart Name from the Hebrew into the target language. The key is NOT to translate, but to carry-over the sound of the original Name into a different language.

We see the following title/names used in various languages:

Arabic – Allah; Armenian – Aramayd; Assyrian – Ashshur; Babylonian – Anu; Chaldaic – Eilah;
Chinese – Shang-Ti or T’ ien; Cretan – Thios; Danish – Gad or Gud; Dutch – God;
Egyptian – Neter; Finnish – Jumala; French – Dieu; Gallic – Diu; German – Diet & Gott;
Greek – Theos; Hindustani – Rain; Hungarian – Isten; Iroquois – Orenda; Irish – Dea; Italian – Dio;

Japanese – Kami; Lapp – Jubmel; Latin – Deus & Diex; Madagascar - Zanahary; Malay – Alla; Hindu – Batara Guru; Norse - Ass; Norwegian – Gad or Gud; Persian – Khuda or Daiva; Peruvian – Pachayachachic; Polish – Bogs; Polynesian – Mana; Portuguese – Deus; Runic – As; Slavic – Bog; Spanish – Dios; Sumero-Akkadian – Ilu; Swedish – Gad or Gud; Tatar – Magatal; Teutonic – Guth; Turkish – Alah & Yulgen - These title/names are taken from the Encyclopedia of Religion and Ethics – vol. 6, pages 243 and 306 – New York – 1928 – James Hastings Edition.

More in-depth research reveals that our English Anglo Saxon predecessors, before their conversion to so-called Christianity, were pagans. One of the most important deities was called “God, Gutt, Guth, Gud, Goth,” etc. Also, we understand that most of the English speaking nations are descendents of the ten tribes of the Northern Kingdom of Yisr’el, which was sent into captivity because they embraced idolatry (Baal worship) and refused to repent.

Why then, do some continue to promote the error of the Yisr’elites rather than repenting, embracing the truth and proclaiming the truth of the ‘Good News of peace’ and the ‘ Good News of things’ and works in the correct Names?
