

Triennial Cycle Torot Readings - 2007

Be careful and most diligent, unless the doctrines of men become greater in your mind than the Torot of YHWH Tzva'ot – Redeemer YHWH of Hosts – Isaiah 44:6

Some congregations could have also been on an annual cycle developed by the Babylonian rabbinic schools. The Talmud (Megilah 28b and Nedarim 39a), at the time when it was compiled, which was after 200 C.E., tells us that there was an extant tradition of following the triennial cycle of readings in Yisr'el.
